

Christmas Poems

For the Christmas Play Primary 4 are asked to learn these two poems off by heart. Please help your child to learn these two poems off by heart both for homework and over the weekend. Thank you.

Come and See

Hush, hush,
Tiptoe soft as snow.
Mary is singing to her baby
Sweet and low.

Look, look,
Look and you will see
God has sent his only Son
To care for you and me.

Sing, sing,
Sing aloud with joy.
Love and peace have come to us
In Mary's baby boy.

Waiting

The wise men waited day-by-day
To see a shining star.
The shepherds waited in the hills
For angels from afar.
The man and woman waited too
At a cradle made of hay.
The end of all their waiting
Was born on Christmas Day.
